Appointments

Stuart Cranmer, Enzolve Technologies

Appointment Date: 30.03.2010
Company: Enzolve Technologies

NovaUCD-headquartered life sciences company Enzolve Technologies has appointed Stuart Cranmer as its new CEO to drive and accelerate international sales.

Cranmer has over 25 years of healthcare management experience. Prior to joining Enzolve he was General Manager of Allergy Standards, a world leader in the testing and certifying of consumer goods.

He has also held senior management roles in global diagnostics companies such as Bio-Rad, Biotrin and DiaSorin. In addition, he mentors life sciences companies for Enterprise Ireland.

Cranmer is a graduate of the University of Luton, initially trained in the UK's National Health Service in clinical biochemistry where he developed particular interests in immunology and immunological methods. He is also a graduate of the Dublin Institute of Technology.

Established in 2002, Enzolve Technologies develops and manufactures specially designed enzymes, using proprietary technologies, for applications in healthcare, fine chemical and life science markets.
